

FRANCO IACOMETTI

BIO

Franco Iacometti
cm-consulting.eu
Email: iacometti@cm-consulting.eu

Franco is a consultant, an executive coach and a facilitator who brings to the partnership more than twenty years of experience in various corporate roles.

Franco works with CM-CONSULTING srl in organizational change management projects.

Franco specializes in strategic facilitation and team coaching and he designs and delivers change and transition management programs as well as leadership development initiatives for leadership teams in different organizational contexts.

Franco supports top teams facilitating strategic plan design and implementation.

As an executive coach, what he likes most is helping business leaders to practice new behaviors in order to effectively respond to the challenges of their organizations and to become leadership role models for their respective teams.

He has worked across countries, nationalities and industries both in his own private practice as well as with the Center for Creative Leadership.

His working languages are Italian and English.

